Ancestor Name: __________________________________________________________

Relation to You: ________________________________________________________

Describe a hard time in this person’s life - perhaps a sad or traumatic event, or a period of general difficulty, either physically, emotionally, socially, or economically. How do you think this struggle affected your ancestor’s everyday life?

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

Describe the types of emotions you think your ancestor felt during this hard time.

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

List some ways in which you can help people in your community who might be going through similar struggles.

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

©2016 Emily Kowalski Schroeder, GrowingLittleLeaves.com
Draw a picture that illustrates your ancestor’s struggle or misfortune.

Draw a picture of you helping a person with a similar problem in the modern world.

©2016 Emily Kowalski Schroeder, GrowingLittleLeaves.com